Dear Jim & Vickie,

Congratulations on your new job, Vickie. I haven't heard too many of the details on it yet, but it sounds real good. That was good luck finding that man in your apartment who needed someone to work for him. I think that's the way most jobs are filled anyway - through someone you know.

Diane just crawled over to me and is trying to grab this letter away from me, and to reach her picture which is on the end table. She wants me to get down on the floor and play with her. She can say Mommy, Daddy, baby, pretty, and see the bird.

I talked to Jennie yesterday, and Carmen is doing just fine. She was running all over the house doing just what she wanted, and no one dared say no to her for anything, according to Jennie.

It's later in the afternoon now, and I am fixing a dinner from my Easy Gourmet Cook book.

It is mainly chicken and cherries with a sauce.

Mom and Dad came over and got the baby, so we are going to a show tonight. It is Mike's turn to choose the show and he won't tell me what it is, but I think it's The Four Musketeers. mom told me you saw and liked Yaws - but I'm afraid I couldn't ~~take that show!~~ I'm sure it's based on fact, however,

I am taking golf lessons, starting next Tuesday at this driving range and putting green not far from our apartment.
I have Dad's golf clubs to use, and I think it should be fun. I got a book on golf at the library today - but I don't know how much help that will be. Mike's already a good golfer, so it would be fun to go out golfing with him.

Love, Mary
